About This Game

This game is a point and click, sandbox erotic RPG set on an island where rich and successful women spend their time, enjoying luxury facilities and sun-kissed beaches. You're a young man born into a rich and powerful family who has grown tired of the pressures they put on you. Hungry for new experiences and adventures, you decide to escape from your daily grind and set off on a journey of discovery. Your first destination is an island of Angelane, otherwise known as the Bikini Island. There will be many quests, many NPCs to interact with and many puzzles to solve!

- Have great fun solving the problems as the island handyman
- Interact with many cute girls in the game.
- Captivating storyline and many quests!
- Start romances with the female NPCs!
- Beautiful renders to allow you to fully immerse in this happy world!

Hugo

Don't you even think about it! We're running short on wine at the moment because of delivery problems. I had to start rationing the wine else we'd run out of it before the next delivery!

Laundry Lady

I'm sorry but I can't talk right now! I'm really busy trying to fix those godforsaken washing machines!

Gardener

Nothing in particular. Just the usual wear and tear. Or should I say, people shredding and tearing..

Right now, the game is just a little over an hour long. There are several locations you can't visit at all and the game kind of ends abruptly at the moment so there definitely needs to be some more content added in the future but if I'm judging the game just based off of it's current state and price point, I have to recommend it.

The time I spent with it was fun, I was enjoying the story (for the most part), and generally would like to see where this is going to go. I'm definitely invested now that I've experienced the abrupt end. I just hope they get the chance to continue the story so it's not left on a cliffhanger like it is now. If you enjoy visual novels with some light puzzle elements I think there's a good bit to like with this one especially considering it's price. You could find a lot worse games that cost a lot more.

If you're still on the fence, I've started a video series on Youtube you can watch and decide for yourselves if this is something you might like:
